

Chautauqua Lecture Series 2017-18

All Presentations Begin at 7:30 PM in O'Donnell Hall of the Whitlock Building

For more information, contact Dr. Erik Liddell, CLS
Coordinator: erik.liddell@eku.edu / chautauqua@eku.edu / 859-622-2267

FALL 2017

- Sept 7 – Sara Goldrick-Rab, “The Transformation of Higher Education: The New Economics of College and their Consequences”
- Sept 14 – Sylvester James Gates, Jr., “Einstein v. Roberts: Does Diversity Matter in Science?” – Celebration of Science and Mathematics Week Keynote Address
- Sept 28 – Julissa Arce, “An American DREAMer: from Undocumented to Wall Street to Immigration Advocacy” – Hispanic Heritage Month Keynote Address
- Oct 5 – “*Hillbilly, the Documentary: 100 Years of Appalachia in TV and Film.” Filmmaker Sally Rubin presents scenes from a work-in-progress – Appalachian Heritage Festival Special Event
- Oct 11 (WED) – Rebecca Goldstein: “The Transformation of the Ancient Greeks and the Making of Philosophy” – Ron Messerich Distinguished Lecture in Philosophy & Religion
- Oct 26 – Jonathan Webb, “Transformation through Story: The Power of Narrative in Developing Critical Consciousness” – Special Event for ADA Awareness Month
- Nov 16 – Kelli Carmean, “Mayan Transformations: Historical Fact and Creative Fiction” – Native American Heritage Month Keynote Address
- Nov 30 – Pam Soltis, “Transformation and Conservation: Climate Change and the Southern Landscape” – Bruce MacLaren Distinguished Lecture

SPRING 2018

- Jan 25 – National Juried Art Exhibition Opening Reception, 5-7 PM, Fred Parker Giles Gallery, Campbell Building. Exhibition runs Jan 22 – Feb 16.
- Feb 1 – Lee Dugatkin, “Rapid Evolution: How to Tame a Fox and Build a Dog”
- Feb 15 – Jocelyn Wilson, “The Outkast Imagination: Hip Hop Education and Transformative Pedagogy” – Black History Month Keynote Address
- Mar 1 – Maryanne Wolf, “Literacy in the Digital Age: Transformations of the Reading Brain”
- Mar 22 – Kimberly Hoang, “Money Movers: Ethnography of Desire in Gray Economies in Southeast Asia” – Combined Women’s History and Asian Studies Keynote Address
- Apr 5 – Robert Frank, “Success and Luck: Good Fortune and the Myth of Meritocracy”
- Apr 19 – Robert Darnton, “Censorship and Literary Transformation: Bourbon France, British India and Communist East Germany” – Distinguished Lecture in International Studies