

Eastern Kentucky University
Chautauqua Lecture Series 2019-20:
*Balance and Resilience

Free and Open to the Public

All presentations in O'Donnell Hall begin at 7:30 pm (unless otherwise indicated)

Full info at www.chautauqua.eku.edu

Or contact erik.liddell@eku.edu

SPRING 2020

January 21–February 15 – National Juried Art Exhibition, Giles Gallery, Campbell Building. Opening Reception: Thursday, January 23, 5-7 p.m.

February 13 – Toyin Falola, Jacob and Frances Sanger Mossiker Chair Professor in the Humanities and Distinguished Teaching Professor, University of Texas at Austin: “Sustainable Development: African Perspectives” — Black History Month Keynote Address

February 19 (WED) – Special Event, 7:00 PM: “Unlocking the Cage: Film and Discussion with Steven M. Wise,” Lawyer, Founder and President of the Non-human Rights Project.

February 27 – Elaine McMillion Sheldon, Award Winning Documentary Filmmaker: “Documenting Appalachia: Recovery, Resilience, Renewal”

March 5 – Matthew Pianalto, Professor of Philosophy, EKU: “Finding Time for Patience in a Busy World”

March 26 – Sara Egge, Associate Professor of History, Centre College: “Balancing the Vote and Exercising Citizenship: The Women’s Suffrage Movement 100 Years On” — Women’s History Month Keynote Address

April 9 – Morgan Marietta, Associate Professor of Political Science, University of Massachusetts-Lowell: “One Nation, Two Realities: Dueling Facts in American Democracy”

April 14 (TUES) – Jennifer Frey, Philosopher, University of South Carolina: “What is the Purpose of Life? Classical and Contemporary Answers” 4th Annual Ron Messerich Distinguished Lecture in Philosophy and Religion

April 23 – Ciaran O’Connor and John Wood, Jr. of Better-Angels.Org, with Carolyn Dupont, Professor of History, EKU: “Better Angels: Balance and Virtue in American Political Debates”

Past Events – FALL 2019

September 12 – Oswald Schmitz, Oastler Professor of Population and Community Ecology, Yale University School of Forestry and Environmental Studies: “The New Ecology: Rethinking a Science for the Anthropocene” — Bruce MacLaren Distinguished Lecture / Celebration of Science Week Keynote Address

September 26 – Belinda Hernandez-Arriaga, Assistant Professor of Marriage and Family Therapy and Faculty Coordinator for the Masters in Counseling MFT program, University of San Francisco: “Cultura, Testimonios, Art and Resistance: Responding to Crisis, Recovering from Trauma” — Hispanic Heritage Keynote Address

October 17 – Jace Clayton, Hip-Hop musician (DJ/rupture), Artist and Writer: “Dancing Off-Balance” — Special Event in conjunction with the EKU First-Year Writing Program

November 7 – Michael Sorrell, President of Paul Quinn College: “Building Resilient Universities for Resilient People”

November 21 – David Albright, Hill Crest Foundation Endowed Chair in Mental Health and Director of the Office for Military Families and Veterans, University of Alabama School of Social Work: “Building Resilience and Finding Balance: Mettle, Mindfulness and Veterans’ Mental Health”

December 4 (WED) – Chip Colwell, Senior Curator of Anthropology at the Denver Museum of Nature & Science, Editor-in-Chief of SAPIENS Anthropology Magazine: “Plundered Skulls and Stolen Spirits: Balancing the Rights of Native America in Reclaiming Their Heritage” — Native American Heritage Keynote Address